

Exploring Innovative Residential Options for Persons with Alzheimer's Disease

Monday, October 22, 2018

New York City Bar Association

42 West 44th Street, New York, NY 10036

8:30 am-1:00 pm

Breakfast is at 8:30 am. Program starts at 9:00 am

Featured Speaker: Eloy van Hal, Founder and Senior Managing Consultant of De Hogeweyk, Weesp, the Netherlands.

Eloy van Hal will provide an operational overview of the renowned Dementia Village facility created in 2009 as an alternative to traditional institutionalized care provided in nursing homes. This village, for individuals with Alzheimer's or other cognitive impairments, groups residents with shared interests and backgrounds in family-like settings in carefully designed environments emphasizing open, outdoor spaces and amenities like parks, a restaurant, grocery store and auditorium.

Panelists:

Rosemary Bakker, MS, Certified Interior Designer, Gerontologist, Author; President, Age-Friendly Design, Inc.; Author of AARP Guide to Revitalizing Your Home

Maria Alvarez, Executive Director, NY State Wide Senior Action Council

Timothy McManus, Vice President and Kenza Sijelmassi, Project Manager, Catholic Charities Progress of Peoples (POP) Development Corporation

Kate Schneider, Dementia Specialist, Ultimate Care Management/Bristal Assisted Living

Moderators:

Judith D. Grimaldi, Grimaldi & Yeung, LLP

Britt Burner, Burner Law Group, PC

To register click here or call the New York City Bar Customer Relations at (212) 382-6663.

Seating is limited.

$15 for New York City Bar Association members, NYSBA Elder Law and Special Needs Section members and NY NAELA members

$30 for Non-Attorneys members

